ANALYSIS

As noted in the Background section of this report, on May 8, 2018, the Board reviewed and approved a Certificate of Appropriateness for the temporary installation of a work of art on the east façade of the Bass Museum. The work of art, created by internationally acclaimed artist Sylvie Fleury, is a neon sign reading “Eternity Now” and is approximately 30’-0” in length and 4’-0” in height. As part of the Board’s Order, the artwork was permitted to be displayed for up to 3 years from the date of approval, which has recently elapsed. The applicant is currently requesting the Board remove this condition to allow for the artwork to be permanently displayed.

Staff has no objection to the request to continue to display this unique work of art. The artwork has not had any adverse impact on the Contributing Bass Art Museum building or the surrounding historic district and furthers the museum’s mission to bring world-class contemporary art to the public. As such, staff recommends approval as noted below.

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the foregoing analysis, staff recommends the application be approved, subject to the conditions enumerated in the attached draft Order.
