(b) No hosting platform shall provide payment processing services, or otherwise facilitate payment for a short-term residential rental that does not have a valid Business Tax Receipt, Certificate of Use, and other requirements that are mandated in accordance with this section and section 102-386. A hosting platform, advertisement platform or short-term residential rental advertising platform shall not be held liable pursuant to this subsection where it:

(1) As part of its short-term residential rental listing registration process, informs the property owner that a Business Tax Receipt and Certificate of Use must be obtained prior to listing a short-term residential rental in the City; requires the property owner to confirm that such party has been advised of the City's regulations, as set forth in this section and section 102-386, including the Business Tax Receipt and Certificate of Use requirements; and provides a dedicated field to enable the property owner to input the Business Tax Receipt and Certificate of Use numbers prior to the property owner completing the registration and listing the short-term residential rental on the hosting platform, advertisement platform or short-term residential rental advertising platform;

(2) Provides the Code Compliance Department, on a monthly basis, a report disclosing, for each short-term residential rental listing, the information entered by the property owner in the Business Tax Receipt and Certificate of Use dedicated fields; the total number of short-term residential rental listings on the service or platform during the prior month; and the total number of nights that short-term residential rentals listed on the service or platform were rented during the prior month; and

(c) Comply with administrative subpoenas or other appropriate legal process from the City seeking information relating to persons or entities listing or offering short-term residential rentals on its service or platform.

(d) Penalties and enforcement.

(1) A violation of this section shall be subject to the following fines:

- a. If the violation is the first offense, a person or business shall receive a civil fine of $1,000.00;
- b. If the violation is the second violation within the preceding six months, a person or business shall receive a civil fine of $2,000.00;
- c. If the violation is the third violation within the preceding six months, a person or business shall receive a civil fine of $3,000.00; and
- d. If the violation is the fourth or subsequent violation within the preceding six months, a person or business shall receive a civil fine of $5,000.00.

(2) Enforcement. The code compliance department shall enforce this section. This shall not preclude other law enforcement agencies from any action to assure compliance with this section and all applicable laws. If a violation of this section is observed, the code enforcement officer will be authorized to issue a notice of violation. The notice shall inform the violator of the nature of the violation, amount of fine for which the violator is liable, instructions and due date for paying the fine, that the violation may be appealed by requesting an administrative hearing before a special master within ten days after service of the notice of violation, and that the failure to appeal the violation within ten days of service shall constitute an admission of the violation and a waiver of the right to a hearing.

- (3) Rights of violators; payment of fine; right to appear; failure to pay civil fine or to appeal; appeals from decisions of the special master.
- a. A violator who has been served with a notice of violation must elect to either:
 - i. Pay the civil fine in the manner indicated on the notice of violation; or
 - ii. Request an administrative hearing before a special master to appeal the notice of violation, which must be requested within ten days of the service of the notice of violation.
 - b. The procedures for appeal by administrative hearing of the notice of violation shall be as set forth in sections 30-72 and 30-73 of this Code. Applications for hearings must be accompanied by a fee as approved by a resolution of the city commission, which shall be refunded if the named violator prevails in the appeal.
 - c. If the named violator, after issuance of the notice of violation, fails to pay the civil fine, or fails to timely request an administrative hearing before a special master, the special master may be informed of such failure by report from the code enforcement officer. The failure of the named violator to appeal the decision of the code enforcement officer within the prescribed time period shall constitute a waiver of the violator's right to an administrative hearing before the special master, and shall be treated as an admission of the violation, for which fines and penalties shall be assessed accordingly.
 - d. A certified copy of an order imposing a fine may be recorded in the public records, and thereafter shall constitute a lien upon any real or personal property owned by the violator, which may be enforced in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including levy against the violator's real or personal property, but shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. On or after the 61st day following the recording of any such lien that remains unpaid, the city may foreclose or otherwise execute upon the lien.
 - e. Any party aggrieved by a decision of a special master may appeal that decision to a court of competent jurisdiction.
 - f. The special master shall be prohibited from hearing the merits of the notice of violation or considering the timeliness of a request for an administrative hearing if the violator has failed to request an administrative hearing within ten days of the service of the notice of violation.
 - g. The special master shall not have discretion to alter the penalties prescribed in subsection ~~(b)(4)~~ (d)(1).
- (e) Exceptions. Penalties listed in subsection ~~(b)(4)~~ (d)(1) shall not apply to:
- (1) Any platforms that integrate geofencing or geocoding within their respective mobile or web-based applications that prohibit property owners from listing those properties that are within a zoning district that prohibits short-term rentals.
 - (2) Platforms that integrate geofencing or geocoding within their respective mobile or web-based applications must still comply with the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) herein.
 - (3) Enforcement. The exceptions set forth herein shall be valid, provided that the hosting platform submits a certificate to the Code Compliance Department of the City of Miami Beach, verifying that the geofencing or geocoding is active and effective. The certificate must be submitted to the city on the first day of each month, unless the first day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday.

- a. Any hosting platform that knowingly submits a false certification of an active and effective geocode or geofence to the city shall be punished in accordance with section 1-14 of the City Code.
- b. A hosting platform will not be held in violation of this section in an event of a property owner providing a false address that falls within a zoning district that allows short-term rentals and after booking, personally directing the guest to a different property located within a zoning district that prohibits short-term rentals. However, in an event that a hosting platform discovers the falsity of the provided property address, it must disclose the falsity and the identity of the property owner to the city within 15 days of the discovery. Should the hosting platform fail to disclose property owner's misconduct, the hosting platform shall be punished in accordance with section 1-14 of the City Code.
- c. Any person or property owner who knowingly commits the act described in subsection ~~102-387(c)(2)b.~~ 102-387(e)(3)b. or any other act done to bypass a hosting platform's geofencing or geocoding in order to list properties within a zoning district that prohibits short-term rentals, shall be punished in accordance with section 1-14 of the City Code.
