HIDEOUT IN THE SUN

550 Washington Avenue was designed by the noted Miami Beach Architect Henry Hohauser.

Opened originally as the Variety Theater (June 20, 1946) as a classic movie revival theater, it was renamed The New Paris Theater (October 13, 1961), retaining its original Variety vertical sign, while a new marquee boards displayed its new name.

1990s

After sitting vacant for nearly a decade it became a video / film production studio for Big Time Productions as owner Eugene Rodriguez bought the 25,589-square-foot structure in 1992 for less than $1 million and transformed it into a studio for the film and photo industry.

2000S

In the early 2000's the theater became a high-end nightclub called Bamboo. The space holds 350 persons at a seated dining event and 1,200 persons legally. The venue still features rooftop studios for photoshoots and production. Brands such as Polo Ralph Lauren, Vogue, Armani and Abercrombie and Fitch shoot here regularly.

WELCOME TO QUEEN MIAMI BEACH

This journey begins at the heart of one of the great art forms of our modern time: Cinema.

As we travel through the space we pay homage to a variety of eras that have brought life to this original theater with touches of american mid century modern viewed with hints of asian inspiration, as well as the decadent exuberance of the 1970's, QUEEN sets the stage for an emotional journey and a tantalizing atmosphere.
