Eduardo Souto de Moura, born on July 25, 1952, in Oporto, Portugal, is a celebrated Portuguese architect and a Pritzker Laureate renowned for his elegant and meticulously crafted buildings. After graduating from the School of Fine Arts in Oporto in 1980 and collaborating with the Portuguese Pritzker Laureate Álvaro Siza, he quickly established his own architectural firm, where he began to shape his distinctive design philosophy that is recognized across the world.

Throughout his illustrious career, Souto de Moura has garnered numerous accolades, including the prestigious Pritzker Prize in 2011, the Wolf Prize in Arts in 2013, the Piranesi Prize in 2017, and the Gold Medal from the Circulo de Bellas Artes de Madrid in 2023. His work is characterized by its harmonious balance of materials, form, and light, setting a standard of excellence in architectural design.

With a legacy of exceptional achievements and a profound impact on the architectural world, Eduardo Souto de Moura continues to inspire admiration and reverence globally.
