16. WASHINGTON AVE & 6TH ST - KIOSK COLOR RECOMMENDATION

The turquoise color option was selected for both Washington Avenue locations, and is inspired by the Avenue's unique color history. This was influenced by Leonard Horowitz's dedication to revitalizing Miami Beach with a pastel color palette that echoed the tropics. Horowitz's inaugural project, which brought vibrant color to Friedman's Bakery at Washington Ave and 7th St, set a precedent for the surrounding buildings. The selection of bright turquoise serves as a contemporary tribute to Horowitz's vision, continuing the tradition of infusing Washington Avenue with lively colors.

It should also be noted that the nearby Sobe Is Love sculpture by renowned Italian artist Claudio Ciaravolo also boasts a turquoise accent color on the interior of its letters.
