Re: Friends of the Bass Museum, Inc. d/b/a Bass Museum of Art – Letter of Intent for Historic Preservation Board Application for a Sculpture Installation in Collins Park

Certificate of Appropriateness

Dear Ms. Tackett:

This shall constitute the Bass Museum of Art's Letter of Intent in support of our Historic Preservation Board Application for approval of the Certificate of Appropriateness with the installation of a sculpture in Collins Park. With this application, the Bass Museum is seeking approval to continue to display the neon sculpture, Eternity Now, 2015 by artist Sylvie Fleury on top of the museum's Art Deco façade facing Collins Park for up to 3 years.

The Bass Museum's mission is to present contemporary art to excite, challenge, and educate. The museum was founded in 1963 when the City of Miami Beach accepted a collection of Renaissance and Baroque works of art from collectors John and Johanna Bass, and renamed the collection that was housed in the Miami Beach Library designed in 1930 by Russell Pancoast to the Bass Museum of Art. The founding collection consisted of 500 works, primarily European Old Master paintings, important textiles and religious sculptures. After celebrating its 50th Anniversary in 2014, the Bass Museum is currently undergoing an interior renovation that will expand its programmable space by nearly 50 percent, which will fortify the growth of the museum as a major cultural institution.

Building on the success of its temporary public art program The Bass Projects, formerly tc: temporary contemporary, as well as its partnership with Art Basel Miami Beach, Public, the Bass Museum has displayed the neon sculpture by Sylvie Fleury and currently displayed on the top of the museum's façade of the Russell Pancoast building.

The success of The Bass Projects and Public demonstrate that the exhibition of world-class contemporary art activates public spaces with art and enriches the lives of all residents, visitors and passers-by. The proposed sculpture will take this one step further, propelling Collins Park into an iconic destination while furthering the museum's vision of a city in which art is a part of everyone's daily lives.

Artist Bio:

Sylvie Fleury (b. 1961) lives and works in Geneva, Switzerland. Fleury is known for her seductive works that re-contextualize status symbols, luxury goods and brand slogans. Fleury draws from elements of twentieth century art and consumer society to investigate the ideas of cultural desire. Her works explore the construction of identity and the absurdity of the quest for self-perfection. Fleury has been a significant figure on the international art scene since her first exhibition in 1990. Her work is included in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art, New York, the Modern and Contemporary Art Museum, Geneva, the Daimler Contemporary, Berlin, and the Migros Museum of Contemporary Art, Zurich. She has had solo exhibitions at the Centre de Arte Contemporaneo in Mala-ga, Salon94 in New York, Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac in Paris, Almine Rech in Brussels, and Karma International in Zurich. In October 2015, Sylvie Fleury was awarded the prestigious Geneva Société des Arts Prize.

Description of Artwork:

The installation is comprised of a neon sign, reading "ETERNITY NOW". The 30' foot wide neon installation is colored "Mediterranean turquoise". The frame dimensions are 16'8"L x 8'3"H x 5"D (Eternity) and 13'6"L x 8'3"H x 5"D (Now). The neon letters are framed by steel shadow boxes with the same linear quality, which reiterates the artist's choice of font. The letters are supported from behind and below by two triangular, steel structures; one per word. The shadow boxes are welded to the support. Each section is weighted in place by sandbags and has a built in transformer for each section.

Removal timeframe:

Boom lift, crane, and flatbed truck are the equipment used to remove the sculpture. Sandbags are removed, sculpture consisting of 2 parts are strapped separately and lowered onto the flat bed with a crane. Total hours of removal: 2 hours.

Based on the above, we respectfully seek your favorable review and recommendation of approval for this application. Thank you in advance for your considerate attention to this request. If you should have any questions or require additional information, please feel free to contact me directly at (786) 477-6023 / email: szambrano@thebass.org

Sherry Zambrano
