

DECLARATION OF CHANTAL KAHALE

1. My name is Chantal Kahale. I have been a resident of the greater Miami area for the past five years. I lived in Miami Beach from 2014-2015 and moved back in April 2018. I am currently a resident of Miami Beach.

2. About a year before I moved to Miami Beach, I came to visit with my sister and her husband. During our trip, we decided to go to Ocean Drive.

3. We parked on a side street and walked to Ocean Drive. Once we reached Ocean Drive, we immediately saw those beautiful bowls displayed at one of the sidewalk cafes. We sat down at the first place we saw and ordered one of the drinks for the three of us. Between the three of us, we struggled to finish one.

4. When we finished the drink and asked for the bill, our waiter told us about the two-for-one special. Although we barely finished the first one, we ordered a second.

5. We barely made a dent in the second drink but because we ordered it, we asked the waiter if we could take it with us in a to-go cup. They put the rest of the drink in cups for us to take with us.

6. When the bill came, we were astonished. I think the bill was about $200. I don't remember exactly how much it was because my sister's husband paid for it, but it was absurd.

7. We were not hawked during this experience, but I think that was because once we saw the drinks we knew we wanted to go in. As a resident now, I never go to Ocean Drive because I know how pervasive the hawking is. I only go for events or meetings, and I try my best to avoid the hawking when it does happen.

I verify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on June 21, 2019.
