	NEW/REVISED LANGUAGE IN RED
SECTION 1	Subsection (2) of section 125.022, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
	125.022 Development permits and orders. — (2)(a) When reviewing an application for a development permit or development order that is certified by a professional listed in s. 403.0877, a county may not request additional information from the applicant more than three times, unless the applicant waives the limitation in writing.
	(b) If a county makes a request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the county must review the application for completeness and issue a letter indicating that all required information has been submitted or specify with particularity any areas that are deficient within 30 days after receiving the additional information.
	(c) If a county makes a second request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the county must review the application for completeness and issue a letter indicating that all required information has been submitted or specify with particularity any areas that are deficient within 10 days after receiving the additional information.
	(d) Before a third request for additional information, the applicant must be offered a meeting to attempt to resolve outstanding issues. If a county makes a third request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the county must deem the application complete within 10 days after receiving the additional information or proceed to process the application for approval or denial unless the applicant waived the county's limitation in writing as described in paragraph (a).
	(e) Except as provided in subsection (5), if the applicant believes the request for additional information is not authorized by ordinance, rule, statute, or other legal authority, the county, at the applicant's request, shall proceed to process the application for approval or denial.
IMPACT	This section modifies the timeline for notification of incomplete application. This section drawings, or other requirements or parts required as part of the completed permit application, may also be submitted in person in a nonelectronic format, at the discretion of the building official.

	(f) A county that issues building permits must post its procedures for processing, reviewing, and approving submitted building permit applications on its website.
IMPACT	This section creates new requirements for posting permit application information online.
SECTION 3	Subsection (2) of section 166.033 prida Statutes, is amended to read:
	(a) When reviewing an application for a development permit or development order that is certified by a professional listed in s. 403.0877, a municipality may not request additional information from the applicant more than three times, unless the applicant waives the limitation in writing.
	(b) If a municipality makes a request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the municipality must review the application for completeness and issue a letter indicating that all required information has been submitted or specify with particularity any areas that are deficient within 30 days after receiving the additional information.
	(c) If a municipality makes a second request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the municipality must review the application for completeness and issue a letter indicating that all required information has been submitted or specify with particularity any areas that are deficient within 10 days after receiving the additional information.
	(d) Before a third request for additional information, the applicant must be offered a meeting to attempt to resolve outstanding issues. If a municipality makes a third request for additional information and the applicant submits the required additional information within 30 days after receiving the request, the municipality must deem the application complete within 10 days after receiving the additional information or proceed to process the application for approval or denial unless the applicant waived the municipality's limitation in writing as described in paragraph (a).
	(e) Except as provided in subsection (5), if the applicant believes the request for additional information is not authorized by ordinance, rule, statute, or other legal authority, the municipality, at the applicant's request, shall proceed to process the application for approval or denial.
IMPACT	This section modifies the timeline for notification of incomplete application. This section does not specifically refer to building code plan review. Applies to cities and special districts
SECTION 4	Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and subsection (14) of section 553.79, Florida Statutes, are amended, and paragraph (d) is added to subsection (1) of that section, to read: 553.79 Permits; applications; issuance; inspections.—

2021 Legislative Session Passed Bill Analysis

- (d) A local enforcement agency must post its procedures for processing, reviewing, and approving submitted building permit applications on its website.
- (14) A building permit for a single-family residential dwelling must be issued within 30 business working days after receiving the permit of application therefor unless unusual circumstances require a longer time for processing the application or unless the permit application fails to satisfy the Florida Building Code or the enforcing agency's laws or ordinances.
- (a) If a local enforcement agency fails to issue a building permit for a single-family residential dwelling within 30 business days after receiving the permit application, it must reduce the building permit fee by 10 percent for each business day that it fails to meet the deadline. Each 10 percent reduction shall be based on the original amount of the building permit fee.
- (b) A local enforcement agency does not have to reduce the building permit fee if it provides written notice to the applicant, by e-mail or United States Postal Service, within 30 business days after receiving the permit application, that specifically states the reasons the permit application fails to satisfy the Florida Building Code or the enforcing agency's laws or ordinances. The written notice must also state that the applicant has 10 business days after receiving the written notice to submit revisions to correct the permit application and that failure to correct the application within 10 business days will result in a denial of the application.
- (c) The applicant has 10 business days after receiving the written notice to address the reasons specified by the local enforcement agency and submit revisions to correct the permit application. If the applicant submits revisions within 10 business days after receiving the written notice, the local enforcement agency has 10 business days after receiving such revisions to approve or deny the building permit unless the applicant grees to a longer period in writing. If the local enforcement agency fails to issue or deny the building permit within 10 business days after receiving the revisions, it must reduce the building permit fee by 20 percent for the first business day that it fails to meet the deadline unless the applicant agrees to a longer period in writing. For each additional business day, but not to exceed 5 business days, that the local enforcement agency fails

	The control of the first terms o to meet the deadline, the building permit fee must be reduced by an additional 10 percent. Each reduction shall be based on the original amount of the building permit fee.
	(d) If any building permit fees are refunded under this subsection, the surcharges provided in s. 468.631 or s. 553.721 must be recalculated based on the amount of the building permit fees after the refund.
IMPACT	This section repeats timeline language found in previous sections. Additionally, this section provides a fee refund when timelines are not met SECTION 5	Section 553.792, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 553.792 Building permit application to local government.— (1)(a) Within 10 days of an applicant submitting an application to the local government the local government shall advise the applicant what information, if any, is needed to deem the application properly completed in compliance with the filing requirements published by the local government. If the local government does not provide written notice that the applicant has not submitted the properly completed application, the application shall be automatically deemed properly completed and accepted. Within 45 days after receiving a completed application, a local government must notify an applicant if additional information is required for the local government to determine the sufficiency of the application, and shall specify the additional information that is required. The applicant must submit the additional information to the local government or request that the local government act without the additional information. While the applicant responds to the request for additional information, the 120-day period described in this subsection is tolled. Both parties may agree to a reasonable request for an extension of time, particularly in the event of a force majeure major or other extraordinary circumstance. The local government must approve, approve with conditions, or deny the application within 120 days following receipt of a completed application.
	(b) If a local government fails to meet a deadline provided in paragraph (a), it must reduce the building permit fee by 10 percent for each business day that it fails to mee the deadline. Each 10 percent reduction shall be based on the original amount of the building permit fee, unless the parties agree to an extension of time.
	(2)(a) The procedures set forth in subsection (1) apply to the following building permit applications: accessory structure; alarm permit; nonresidential buildings less than 25,000 square feet; electric; irrigation permit; landscaping; mechanical; plumbing; residential units other than a single family unit; multifamily residential not exceeding 50 units; roofing; signs; site-plan approvals and subdivision plats not requiring public hearings or public notice; and lot grading and site alteration associated with the permit application set forth in this subsection. The procedures set forth in subsection (1) do not apply to permits for any wireless communications facilities or when a law, agency rule, or local ordinance specify different timeframes for review of local building permit applications.

	(b) If a local government has different timeframes than the timeframes set forth in subsection (1) for reviewing building permit applications described in paragraph (a), the local government must meet the deadlines established by local ordinance. If a local government does not meet an established deadline to approve, approve with conditions, or deny an application, it must reduce the building permit fee by 10 percent for each business day that it fails to meet the deadline. Each 10 percent reduction shall be based on the original amount of the building permit fee, unless the parties agree to an extension of time. This paragraph does not apply to permits for any wireless communications facilities. (3) If any building permit fees are refunded under this section, the surcharges provided in s. 468.631 or s. 553.721 must be recalculated based on the amount of the building permit fees after the refund.

IMPACT	This section provides a fee reduction provision when building permit timelines are not met. When a fee reduction is applied the state surcharges must also be recalculated and refunded.
SECTION 6	Paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of section 553.794, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
	553.794 Local government residential master building permit program.— 6 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - (5) MASTER BUILDING PERMIT APPLICATION APPROVAL PROCESS.— (c) The local building department must approve or deny a master building permit application within 120 days after the local building department receives a completed application, unless the applicant agrees to a longer period. If a local building department fails to approve or deny a master building permit application within 120 days after receiving the completed permit application, it must reduce the master building permit fee by 10 percent for each business day that it fails to meet the deadline, unless the applicant agrees to a longer time period. Each 10 percent reduction shall be based on the original amount of the master building permit fee. If any master building permit fees are refunded, the surcharges provided in s. 468.631 or s. 553.721 must be recalculated based on the amount of the master building permit fees after the refund.
IMPACT	Provides a fee reduction for a jurisdiction that fails to approve or deny a permit application for a master building permit within established timeline.
SECTION 7	Subsections (6) and (7) of section 713.135, Florida Statutes, are renumbered as subsections (7) and (8), respectively, and a new subsection (6) is added to that section to read:
	713.135 Notice of commencement and applicability of lien.— (6) An authority that issues building permits may not require an applicant to provide a direct contract or a contract between a contractor and any other lienor as a condition of the application for, or processing or issuance of, a building permit for the construction of improvements or for the alteration or repair of improvements on or to commercial property. This subsection does not apply to the construction of improvements or the alteration or repair of improvements owned or leased by the federal government, the state or any county, city, or political subdivision thereof, or other public authority.
IMPACT	This is repetitive language that prohibits a jurisdiction from requiring a copy of a contract to validate project valuation.
SECTION 8	This act shall take effect October 1, 2021
