Good Evening,

As a lifelong resident of Miami Beach, my husband and I believe that the proposal of a 200 ft. tower on Collins involving the Sagamore Hotel would unnecessarily ruin the character and beauty of the historic district there, as the Miami Herald has stated. This proposal is not in the public interest. The City Historic Preservation Board should, as it's name states, adhere to it's mandrake and public responsibility and preserve our historic buildings.

We urge you to reject this proposal.

Thank you,
Nancy and Tom Harrington
