- 2. Amnesia International LLC d/b/a Story Nightclub v. City of Miami Beach, Case No. 22-003722-CA-23 (Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County, Florida). This is an action for injunctive and declaratory relief brought by the owners of Story nightclub to enjoin the City's enforcement of its two-week 2 A.M. Spring Break rollback of alcohol service hours in areas of the City south of 17th Street in South Beach. The case was consolidated with a similar challenge brought by the Clevelander, and Circuit Court Judge Beatrice Butchko held a hearing and agreed with plaintiff's argument that the legislation was a land-use regulation that required 5 votes of the City Commission. The City Attorney's Office immediately appealed, moved to expedite the appeal, and moved to stay the court's decision pending appeal, but, unfortunately, the Third District Court of Appeal denied those motions. The result of those denials was that the appeal would not be heard until after the two-week Spring Break rollback had passed, so the City Attorney's Office voluntarily dismissed its appeal. We have now moved in the Circuit Court to dismiss the case as moot because the two-week at issue has passed.

The City has answered this complaint.
