Ref: Stanton South Beach Marriot Hotel
161 Ocean Dr, Miami Beach, FL 33139/Application for Certificate of Appropriateness for two new trellis structures

Dear Ms. Tackett,

On behalf of the applicant, Komar Investments Inc., (the "Applicant"), enclosed find the application to the Historic Preservation Board requesting Certificate of Appropriateness for design to add a trellis structure at the upper pool deck and on the west conference room balcony. Please let the following serve as the required letter of intent in connection with the request for the Certificates of Appropriateness.

Description of Property/ Background:

Development Program: Add a decorative trellis structure to the upper pool deck and one to the west front elevation of the Marriot addition at the conference room balcony.

Conclusion : The existing owner and the operator of the Stanton South Beach Marriot Hotel wishes to provide their guest and the general public with the experience of a softer view to the upper pool deck and front façade of the Marriott Hotel while combining it with a more practical use of the space that functions within their operational style. Enclosed for your review and consideration is the complete application, including the historic resources report, and all other required plans, renderings and other supporting materials. We respectfully request the Historic Preservation Board to approve the Certificate of Appropriateness for design. If there are any questions or comments with regards to the application please give me a call at (305)661-0800.

Sincerely,
